

Occupational Health RN

CareHere, LLC

Cleveland, NC

APPLY HERE: indeed.com

About The Opportunity

- Triage and treat work related injuries and illnesses
- Develop a comprehensive treatment plan to return the patient to baseline
- Collect and handle laboratory specimens
- Perform EKG's and other in office patient testing as identified, including pre-employment compliance testing
- Provide patient education and be a resource for personal injuries and illnesses to answer questions or concerns, along with guiding to the proper provider.

Schedule: 40 hours / Monday - Friday 6a-3p

About You

- Passion for providing excellent patient care in a collaborative environment Occupational Medicine setting
- Current licensure as a Registered Nurse with 2 plus years of experience in an Occupational setting OR experience in the ER/Urgent Care
- BLS or CPR certification
- Skilled in phlebotomy
- Computer skills including electronic medical records

About Us

CareHere specializes in providing employer-sponsored healthcare for municipalities, state governments, and private employers across many industries, by making healthcare easier, better and more affordable. CareHere manages 200+ health and wellness centers in 26 states and provides medical services to 110,000+ employees and over 225,000 members. Through our model, which integrates wellness and case management with primary and chronic patient care, CareHere provides employers measurable savings in health benefit costs. Visit www.CareHere.com/Careers to learn more.

Job Type: Full-time